Together We Thrive: A Month of Love and Unity

Maj Samantha Davies, 11 FSS/CC

February holds a special place in my heart. In February 2012, my husband proposed to me. He did not propose on Valentine's Day, but it was romantic. He proposed on the ice of a Colorado Avalanche game. At the time, he knew little about hockey, except that I was raised watching it. Today, three of our four children play ice hockey, and we enjoy looking back at that day in February 2012 that started it all. Since then, we have enjoyed a happy and exciting time together, being stationed worldwide and raising our 4 kiddos.

Our journey together has been filled with love, adventure, and countless cherished moments. In our 13 years, we have taken full advantage of the events and opportunities offered by the 9 bases we have been stationed at to strengthen our relationship and improve our communication as a couple. Whether attending Couples Communication classes or participating in events like Valentine's Bowling, these activities have been instrumental in strengthening our bond.

Love and togetherness are not just reserved for romantic relationships. They extend to our bonds with our families, friends, colleagues, and acquaintances. Here at JBAB, we witness daily acts of love and togetherness – from a simple smile shared between coworkers to unwavering support during challenging times.

Recent months have genuinely exemplified the strength and solidarity of our community. As we worked through State Funeral 39 and Presidential Inauguration 60, the support and cooperation we extended to one another was remarkable. These significant events required meticulous planning, dedication, and teamwork. The collective effort displayed during these times underscored the very essence of togetherness.

As we embrace the theme of love and togetherness this February, let's remember that small acts of kindness and connection make the most significant impact. A kind word, a helping hand, or simply being there for someone can brighten their day and strengthen our community. I wish you a month filled with love, joy, and meaningful connections. Let's celebrate the bonds that make us stronger and the love that brings us together.

TITAN THOUGHT

TODAY MATTERS
Mr. Wayne McCray

I was reminded on yesterday that life is short. This brevity is what makes life special and valuable to each of us. Not the fact that we will end one day, but the truth that our opportunities are now, present, immediate, and need our undivided attention. Certainly we are to dream and plan as if we will live forever, but there is something extremely precious about living in the moment and being fully present for right now.

So, make your plans indeed, but life is limited and the fact that it was shared with you by someone you love is an indescribable gift to be treasured. Enjoy today...it counts too.
